

Home Farm Torksey Street.

It is reported that in the late 1800's two Hoyland brothers came fishing to Rampton Trent. They met two sisters whom they married. Mr Ellen the young ladies father gave one daughter Home farm, the other Hall farm Main Street. After his fathers death James Hoyland farmed the Home Farm. He married Annie Mellors the eldest daughter of Robert and Emily Mellors. and at Home Farm they brought up four children :-

Arthur, Robert, Marian and Dennis.

Arthur married Kath Lawrence, Robert was killed. Marian moved to Kent when her parents moved there, she still lives there, and Dennis married Peacock from haneham.

Annie Hoyland on her way to chapel.