

Mr. Harold Wilson
replies to Mr. Brown

THE following letter is the exact copy of the one sent by Mr. Alan Brown, of Gate Cottage, Treswell Road, Rampton, to the Prime Minister in connection with a recent speech in New York.

To Mr. Wilson,
(Prime Minister)
April 17th, 1965.

Dear Sir,

I (along with many other thousands of people in Britain) have heard on the radio and seen in the press your recent words in a speech in New York. May I be permitted to say that your sentence "Britain is ready to 'knock hell' out of U.S. Competitors with her economic programme", has been received here with real regret. I would also like to remind you Sir, that you not only represent yourself, but in your position as P.M. you represent the whole of the population of Great Britain. Therefore may I ask you to remember your position as Prime Minister and try to curb your rather crude language in the future. Wishing you every success.

Yours truly,
ALAN BROWN.

Mr. Brown received the following reply on notepaper headed '10 Downing Street, Whitehall'.
